

Becoming a member of the DGSA

Benefits of membership

The benefits of becoming a member include:

- being active in all levels of the DGSA
- registering stock with the DGSA
- receiving the bi-monthly Australian Goat World magazine, the yearly Herd Book and regular Branch newsletters
- eligibility to receive Milk Awards
- the right to exhibit goats at approved shows
- sharing knowledge and information with other members
- reduced advertising rates in DGSA publications
- eligibility to become a dairy goat judge

How to join

1. Download "How to become a member of the Dairy Goat Society of Australia" and a membership application form (links at the bottom of this page)
2. Read the information carefully and fill out the form
3. Post the form and payment to the following address:

Mrs Anita Fogg
46 Cullinan Rd
Batesford Victoria 3213

When joining the Society after 1st October, new memberships will continue until 31st December the following year.

You can also request an information pack by contacting the Federal Publicity Officer:

Mrs Cathy Packham
8731 Huon Hwy
Southport Tasmania 7109
Ph: (03) 6298 3256
Email: catherine.packham@gmail.com

Information packs are also available by contacting your State Branch.

Membership fees

Item	Fee
Ordinary membership (including the Australian goat World)	$99.00
Junior membership (including the Australian Goat World)	$51.70
Australian Goat World subscription (Australian non-members)	$55.00
Australian Goat World subscription (overseas non-members)	$65.00
Prefix fee on new memberships/late fee	$22.00
Herd book	$8.80
Badges	$5.50

Forms

Download "How to become a member of the Dairy Goat Society of Australia" \(PDF, 70kb\)

Download a membership application form \(PDF, 80kb\)